FAILURE TO FILE THIS REPORT WITHIN TWO BUSINESS DAYS OF RECEIPT MAY RESULT IN SUBSTANTIAL PENALTIES***

The State Board of Elections may impose fines for delinquent filing of a Schedule A-1 up to the total amount of the contribution(s) reported late. When a fine is imposed, the minimum amount will be 10% of the contributions that were untimely reported.

*According to 10 ILCS 5/9-10 subsection b-5 of the Act a contribution is received

"on the date the public official, candidate, or political committee...actually receives it or, in the case of goods or services, 2 days after the date the public official, candidate, committee, or other reporting entity receives the certification required under subsection (b) of Section 9-6. Failure to report each contribution is a separate violation of this subsection."

INSTRUCTIONS FOR COMPLETION OF THE SCHEDULE A-1

1. The A-1 is utilized only during the 30 days immediately preceding any election (up through and including the day before any election) in which a political committee is accepting contributions or making expenditures on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate or question of public policy on the ballot. If a contribution(s) of more than $500 from a single source is received within this time period, the receiving committee must report it on the A-1 and have it filed with the State Board of Elections within 2 business days of receipt.
2. Complete the name and mailing address of the political committee.
3. Enter committee identification number in the box marked POLITICAL COMMITTEE IDENTIFICATION NUMBER.
4. List full name and mailing address (including zip code) of the contributor, date the contribution was received, and the amount of the contribution(s).
5. A candidate's own funds as well as Loans and In-Kind contributions must also be reported if they exceed $500.
6. Information reported on the A-1 will be restated on the next regularly scheduled D-2 form Schedule A report.
7. This form must be dated and signed by the treasurer or candidate.
8. If you are required by law to file your reports electronically, all A-1 reports must also be filed electronically. If you need assistance, please contact the State Board of Elections.
9. Committees that are not required to file reports electronically may file A-1 reports in person, by facsimile transmission or electronically.
